MAY SUCCEED THURSTON. Stephen E. Krumer Mentioned as

Assistant School Superintendent. According to the belief expressed yes terday by several persons in touch with the situation, Stephen E. Kramer, supervising principal of the third division of the public schools, is to be appointed assistant superintendent of schools. Mr. Kramer was one of the prominent candidates for superintendent. The recommendation of assistant superintendent, which rests with Supt. Thurs ton, probably will be brought before the meeting of the board of education to-morrow. Thus far he has expressed no choice, but it is believed by those in close touch with Mr. Thurston that he

Stone will lecture at 8 o'clock on "Diseases Acquired Through Occupations." This series of lectures, of which ther appearance is decidedly grotesque and will provoke wholesome amusemen while attesting her astounding versatility.

The Nestor Company has begun the production of their second two-reel com-edy, entitled "She Was Only a Working It bids fair to be a worthy running mate to their recent two-reel comedy success, "When Ursus Threw the Bull. John A. Steppling will play the part of a villainous capitalist. Eddie Lyons will play the part of the honest elevator boy, while Ramona Langley will be seen in the title role.

The production is to be a ripping travesty on old-style melodrama. Nellie, the working girl, goes to the wicked city to make enough money to save the old homestead from the villain. She falls into the snares of the wicked capitalist and his foreman, and from thenceforth there is thunder and lightning, hair-breadth es-capes, heroic rescues and hair-raising capes, heroic rescues and hair-raising chases—all in the standard melodramatic Syracuse, N. Y., Jan. 19.—The Syracuse style of thirty years ago—until finally Herald today observed the thirty—the honest elevator boy saves the girl, seventh anniversary of its founding.
